

Nutrition and Exercise Physiology Seminar Series

Fall 2009 Schedule

Co-sponsored by the Food for the 21st Century Nutritional Sciences

DATE	SPEAKER	TOPIC
Sept 3	Dr. Dawn Cornelison University of Missouri	Context Cues: Muscle Regeneration and the Extracellular Environment
Sept 10	Dr. Azlin Mustapha University of Missouri	Probiotics as Functional Food Ingredients
Sept 17	Dr. Heather Leidy University of Kansas Medical Center	The Impact of Increased Dietary Protein and Meal on Appetite Control & Body Weight Management
Sept 24	Zhiqiang Zheng University of Missouri	Novel Roles of Copper Homeostasis in Alzheimer's Disease and Regulation of Inducible of Nitric Oxide Synthase
Oct 1	Dr. Brian Finck Washington University School of Medicine	Lipin Proteins Control Hepatic Fat Metabolism Through Thick and Thin
Oct 8	No Seminar MU vs Nebraska Football game
Oct 15	Dr. Rod Johnson University of Illinois	From Inflammation to Sickness and Fatigue: When the Immune System Subjugates the Brain
Oct 22	Sarah Borengasser University of Missouri	Run Fat Run!: Exercise and Fish Oil as Treatments for Fatty Liver Disease
Oct 29	Dr. Susan Johnson University of Colorado	Early Childhood Nutrition: Patterns for a Lifetime
Nov 4 1:30 pm	Dr. Steven Blair University of South Carolina	Physical Activity and Weight Management
Nov 12	Dr. Doug Bowles University of Missouri	Physical Activity and Coronary Artery Disease: Does Smooth Muscle Play a Role?
Nov 19	Dr. Doug Mashek University of Minnesota	TAG Hydrolysis: New Insights into its Role in Fatty Liver and Metabolic Disease Etiology
Nov 26	No Seminar - Thanksgiving break
Dec 3	Last week of class

Seminars are regularly held in Acuff Auditorium on Thursday afternoons from 4:00-5:00 p.m.
Refreshments at 3:45 p.m.

 Note change of date and time to Wednesday at 1:30 pm location remains Acuff Auditorium